

Summer SP6LB Contest Rules

The Contest is organised to commemorate the great polish VHF radioamateur Zdzislaw Bienkowski SP6LB.

1. Participants

All radioamateurs allowed to work on bands from 50MHz to 241GHz may participate in the Summer Zdzislaw Bienkowski SP6LB Contest (shortly: Summer SP6LB Contest).

Participants must operate within the spirit of the contests promoted by a doyen of Polish VHF/UHF enthusiasts - Zdzislaw Bienkowski SP6LB.

Participants must operate according to the license conditions of the country where the station resides.

2. Date and time

Summer SP6LB Contest is held every year on the first weekend of August, starting on Saturday at 14:00 UTC and ending on Sunday at 14:00 UTC.

3. Bands, categories, reports and scoring

- according to the VHF/UHF IARU Reg.1 contest rules:

<https://www.iaru-r1.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/08/contest-rules-2.pdf>

- foreign participants must have at least one contact with station working from Polish territory.

4. Logs

- must be sent out in REG1TEST/EDI digital/electronic format.

- must be submitted not later than the second Monday following the contest weekend.

- received after this time will be used as a checklogs.

- should be uploaded at the Web page: <https://vhfcontests.pk-ukf.pl/>

- sending the log, participant accepts the Contest Rules.

Contacts between stations on Polish territory can be counted only if they are confirmed in the log of the correspondent. In the absence of a log from a participant from outside Polish territory all contacts made to that station will be counted.

5. Penalties

A participant who violates the Contest Rules or the VHF/UHF IARU Reg.1 Band Plan and Rules will be disqualified.

6. Results

Temporary results will be published within 8 weeks after the contest. After that, within 7 days, participants has a right to submit claims to Contest Manager.

Claims will be resolved by the Contest Manager in consultancy with board of PK-UKF.

The final results will be published within 10 weeks after the contest.

7. Prizes

Winners of each categories will be awarded.